

Recent Events

On Tuesday we held a netball tournament against Clifton All Saints Academy. Our players were excellent, and the matches were all very close. St. Mary's Blue team were the overall winners – congratulations! A big thank you to Mrs May for coaching the teams and organising the event, Mrs Campbell for refereeing and the parent helpers too.

This week

Today marks the start of 'Walk to School Week' – hopefully the children will be able walk to school as many times as possible. If not, why not try 'Park and Stride' – park further from school and walk part of the journey. St. Mary's Church, Kings Baptist Church and The Chequers have all kindly said parents may use their car parks before and after school to assist this.

The closing date for the Walk To School Poster Competition is Thursday 21st May.

On Friday the children are up for the 'Dad vs. School' challenge! During the day each class and the parent relay runners will run laps of the field in an effort to beat Mr McBurney! Who will win?!

Mr McBurney would welcome any sponsors and is also running a sweepstake – see him by the office tomorrow and Wednesday before school. Parents are invited to the school field at 3pm on Friday to see the closing stages of the event. Children can wear non-uniform in return for a small donation.

Cricket Club is on Thursday this week (Lions, Tigers & Bears) so there will be no Lion King rehearsal after school. Mrs Brightwell will organise a Lion King rehearsal for Friday afternoon, during school time.

SMSA

We currently have a vacancy for SMSA Secretary. Duties include; coming to meetings, taking minutes, typing them up and distributing them via email. Please contact Amanda Allen, SMSA chairperson, if you are interested.

Our next meeting is this Thursday, 21st May, at 7.30pm in the staff room. Please come along if you can.

We also need volunteers to count laps on Friday at the Dad Vs. School event. If you are able to help, even for just an hour, please speak to John McBurney or Amanda Allen.

Coming soon
